Wingate has delivered strong, stable and consistent returns for our co-investors.

Our flagship fund, the Wingate Investment Partners Trust (WIP), has a long track record of delivering stable returns. As illustrated in the graph, a $100,000 investment in WIP has consistently yielded strong returns that are uncorrelated with traditional investments like Australian equities and high yield corporate bonds. WIP has also delivered stronger returns than other defensive income yielding investments, such as Australian investment grade corporate bonds.
